After you adoption, you will be required to take your new cat or kitten to the vet within one week for a basic wellness exam. Some veterinarians offer a free exam, but if not, you can expect to pay $30-$60 plus additional costs for vaccines, medications or treatments that are needed. All cats and kittens have been potentially exposed to Upper Respiratory Infections. Once you have signed the contract, JHS legally cannot provide any further vaccinations or veterinary care. The cat or kitten you are adopt is likely NOT trained and you must be prepared to make the commitment to provide all necessary training.

Are you prepared for this time commitment and expense? YES NO

Do you have any questions about the follow up exam? _____

Cats are not routinely tested for FeLV/FIV. JHS does test some cats prior to adoption. If the cat you have chosen has been tested, there will be an additional $15 fee at time of adoption. If the cat has not been tested, you will have the opportunity to have your cat tested. Please let your adoption counsellor know you are interested.
